ILL-FATED INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE HAS ENDED

MINERS TO REJECT WAGE RAISE WHICH WILSON SUGGESTS DECLARES LEWIS

Acting President of Federation Will Accept No Offered Compromise.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE ON THE BOARDS TODAY

Final Effort to be Made to Avert Walk-Out. Plans for the Strike Perfected.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The coal strike will go through, John L. Lewis, acting president of the mine workers, declared today after holding a conference with other leaders of the miners to consider the wage increase proposal made by Secretary of Labor Wilson.
"The strike order still stands," said Lewis, as he left the conference. "The strike will not be averted. We will reject the Secretary's proposal as being inadequate to meet the demands of the miners. We will so inform him this afternoon, but we will listen to what he has to say."
Lewis and the other leaders were of the opinion that there is no chance now of discussion which would lead to negotiations. Lewis went into conference with Samuel Gompers, to make plans to secure co-operation with the American Federation of Labor during the coal strike.

TENTH OF QUOTA RAISED IN SHOPS

The L. & N. railroad shops bid fair to repeat in the present Y. M. C. A. drive, what they have been accomplishing all along when altruistic campaigns have been launched in that big industrial center. According to reports a full organization has been perfected among the men, of which Master Mechanic C. W. Matthews is general chairman and George C. Hise, acting chairman.
All the different crafts have representatives in the working force to secure the needed funds. At an enthusiastic meeting held yesterday afternoon, a dozen of the general committee were in attendance and before it adjourned more than $40 or nearly a tenth of the desired quota was subscribed. Those attending the meeting were: Messrs. Bracken, Blair, Dunnivant, Ellner, Hise, Huchison, Johns, Ling, Matthews, McCluskey, Thornhill and Wilson. Other members of this committee will be announced later according to announcement from the shops.

Negro is Fined on Prohibition Charge

A negro, charged with violating the prohibition laws, was fined $15.00 by Mayor Dillehay. Chief of Police Hendrix captured 2 1/2 gallons of liquid refreshments, said to have been the property of the defendant.

Job Sought for Returned Soldier

The Home Service Section of the Red Cross today announced it seeks employment for a returned soldier, who is an expert roof repairer. Any person needing his services was requested to communicate with the Home Service section in the City National bank building. Discharged soldiers seeking employment also were requested to communicate with Red Cross officials as several jobs are listed there.

Reds Claim White Armies Are Checked

(International News Service.)
LONDON, Oct. 23.—The following official statement from the Bolshevik government was received by wireless from Moscow today: "We have severely checked Gen. Yudenitch's army and have made an advance over the entire front."

FAST SHEFFIELD GRID SQUAD PLAYS ALBANY HIGH FRIDAY

Coach Templeton Puts the Purple and Gold Through Strenuous Program of Work

Despite the heavy rains of the past few days, Coach Templeton has put his Purple and Gold grid squad through a strenuous program of work and the team is rapidly rounding into tip-top condition for Friday's game with Sheffield high school here.
Sheffield claims one of the classiest football teams in North Alabama and should Albany be defeated, Sheffield probably will put in a bid for the championship, as she is undefeated this season.
Albany emerged from the Florence game Monday without injury. The game at Florence was witnessed by several members of the Sheffield team, who sought to get a line on the plays Coach Templeton is using, but they were disappointed, for Albany uncracked no trick formations, depending on straight football against the Lauderdale county lads. The locals took no chances, after getting away to a comfortable lead in the first quarter.

Sheffield will outweigh Albany, tips received here indicate. The team swamped Florence 48 to 0 and basing their hope on Albany's defeat of Florence by a score of 12 to 7, Sheffield is predicting an easy victory Friday. They are doomed to a great awakening, however, the Purple jerseyed warriors declare.

RED CROSS OPENS DRIVE IN COUNTY ON TUBERCULOSIS TO MAKE SURVEY

Miss Anderson Arrives Here to Begin County-Wide Campaign.

WAS MEMBER OF THE ARMY NURSES' CORPS

Health Survey Will Require About Six Months to Complete.

"After the Hun lets get tuberculosis stamped out" is the battle cry of the Red Cross now, according to Miss Emma Anderson, former member of the nurses' corps of the American army with a record of 15 months service in France, now back in the service of the Red Cross, who arrived here today to begin a health campaign for Morgan county.

Miss Anderson will make a health survey of the county under the auspices of the Red Cross, with special attention devoted to tuberculosis cases. She opened offices this morning in the Home Service section in the City National bank building. The entire campaign probably will require six months but Miss Anderson does not expect to spend all of the time here.

"We are trying to get the work started in every county in the state," Miss Anderson said, "but we have only begun it in seven, Morgan making the seventh county."

"I would appreciate very much any information regarding tuberculosis cases in the county, whether the information comes from physicians or from laymen. We take up the cases and seek an examination after which we try to teach the patient the best methods of sanitation. Some of the cases can be cured by proper instruction in methods of treatment, while others are too far advanced for anything to be done for them but simple sanitation."

"Jefferson county is the only county at present with a hospital for the cases but some day we hope to see more established."

Miss Anderson wears the emblem of the army medical corps and two gold chevrons for service in France.

8 CUPS DONATED FOR POULTRY SHOW

Mayor A. C. Dillehay, of Albany, will donate a handsome silver cup for the best hen in the November poultry show here, officials of the poultry association announced today. Otto Moebes, well known real estate dealer, has given a cup to be awarded for the best pullet in the show.

A total of 8 cups already have been donated for awards in the show and the cups are on display in the window of the Nelson jewelry store on Bank street. Later they will be placed on display in Albany.

The Chero-Cola company today notified the association the bottling company will give $25 in cash to the show and 25 cases of Chero-Cola.

BIDS FOR LARGEST BOND ISSUE IN THE CITY'S HISTORY BE RECEIVED TONIGHT

Albany Council Will Meet in Special Session at 7 O'Clock.

MONEY WILL BE USED FOR STREET PAVING

Half a Dozen Companies Are Expected to Have Representatives Present.

The city council of Albany will meet in special session at 7 o'clock tonight to receive bids for the largest bond issue in the history of the municipality. Bonds amounting to $363,000 will be sold, if the bids received tonight are satisfactory to the city fathers. The money will be used in defraying the expenses of the paving program, which includes the improvement of twenty three streets.

City Clerk Henry Hartung stated this morning that no sealed bids had been received in his office for the bonds but that half a dozen companies are expected to have representatives at the meeting tonight to discuss with the council the purchase of the municipal paper.

The sale of the bonds will be the latest step in preparation for the beginning of the paving. The ordinances were passed several weeks ago and last week were ratified at a special meeting when protests of citizens were overruled. In only one instance, Seventh Avenue west, did the protesting petitions represent a majority of the frontage on any street, members of the council stated and opponents of the Seventh avenue improvement were told that when the council began awarding contracts for construction, their protest would again be heard.

17,000 Settlers Enter Canada in 6 Months

(International News Service.)
WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 23.—Settlers numbering 17,378 have entered western Canada in the first six months of the present year, according to figures of the Department of Immigration and Colonization, and have brought with them money and personal property valued approximately at $8,572,893.

This is an increase of 2,338 settlers and about $651,617 in property over the same period last year. The newcomers are of all nationalities, but by far the largest proportion give their birthplace as the United States.

Most of the immigrants were farmers with their families.

SHOPS ARE FREE OF ACCIDENTS IN DRIVE

The first of the two "no accident" weeks, planned by the Railroad Administration throughout the United States, is drawing to a close without an accident, so far as the local railroad shops are concerned. Two slight mishaps, one to John Mann, of the boiler shops and another to Mr. Hollingsworth have been reported. But as they do not meet the requirements necessary to be classed as accidents under the rules of the drive, the local shops are thus far 100% accident free.

WATER COMPANY MEN, WITH RED FLAGS, NEARLY MOBBED

(International News Service.)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—It is "unhealthy" to wave red flags in the Pittsburgh district these strike-ridden days.

Two men with the crimson symbol of anarchy caused great excitement in one of the steel centers. The police made a rush for them and the "radicals" soon were behind the bars. When given the right to explain they said they were employees of a water company sent out to place danger signals at bad places. They were released.

1,600,000 RAILWAY EMPLOYEES PLAN BIG STRIKE NEXT MONTH

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Plans are already laid for a general railroad strike, which will involve a walk-out of everyone of the 1,600,000 union railway employees in the United States from switchmen to messengers, should the government turn down wage demands and fail to guarantee improved working conditions before the roads are turned back to private ownership, according to information which leaked out here today.

Officials of the railroad labor organizations predicted that "early next month the nation may one day find every railroad wheel in the U. S. stopped and every railroad office and shop deserted by employees."
The four big railroad brotherhoods and all railroad organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor have taken strike votes and it is admitted that all will select the same day for a strike, should the railroad administration fail to meet the demands of all.
(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Railroad brotherhood officials are planning to set a general strike date in November, it was stated at the headquarters of the railway clerks here today.

HINES WILL SETTLE WAGE CLAIMS OF RAILROAD WORKERS

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The question of increased wages for railroad workers will be settled by the government before the railroads are returned to their private owners, it was learned at the railroad administration office today. The board of railway wages and working conditions is now preparing its final report on the demands of the railroad workers, it was stated. This report will be submitted to Director General Hines within two weeks.

POSTAL WORKERS GIVEN AN INCREASE

Local postal officials today were flattered at the announcement from Washington of increases to practically all employees of first and second class postoffices. Local offices are in the latter class. The house and senate conferees agreed yesterday to grant increases ranging from $100 to $200 annually for general employees, with smaller advances for rural route carriers.

The increase will cost the government between $38,000,000 and $45,000,000 yearly and will be retroactive from July 1.

Employees receiving increases include: assistant postmasters, clerks, carriers, railway clerks, inspectors, mechanics, laborers, watchmen and third class postmasters. Practically every employee of the Decatur and Albany offices will receive an increase with the exception of Postmasters Alexander and Crawford. The $200 increase goes to those now receiving between $1000 and $1200; $150 to those receiving between 1200 and $1600; $125 to those receiving between $1600 and $2000 and $100 to those receiving between $2000 and $2500.

President's Progress is Quite Satisfactory

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The President is making satisfactory progress, it was announced today. The following statement was issued by Dr. Grayson: "The President is making as satisfactory progress in the circumstances as possible. No new symptoms have developed."

"KITCHEN KICK" RECIPES BARRED WHEN WILSON SIGNS DRY LAW

War-Time Enforcement Act Sent to the President Today by Palmer.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Strict laws for the enforcement of war-time prohibition may become effective today. Attorney General Palmer today sent to the White House the war-time prohibition enforcement act, which he has been studying. Dr. Grayson announced that he would not oppose the bill being presented to the President for his signature.

A campaign against the many recipes for "home brews" and "kitchen kinks" will also be made by the department of justice. Under the law the sale of such recipes or their communication is unlawful, and many publishing houses dealing in such matters will be forced to withdraw their stocks.

LABOR GROUP OUT OF CONFERENCE TO STAY; LEADERS SAY WILL NOT RETURN

Made All Concessions Possible, Declares Samuel Gompers in Statement Today.

EVEN BARNEY BARUCH SAYS SESSIONS OFF

White House Representative Opposed to Meetings With One Group Absent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—President Wilson this afternoon asked the public group of the industrial conference to continue its work and make a report, it was stated at the white house.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—President Wilson himself today declared that the industrial conference which he had called to Washington had come to an end. Franklin A. Lane, chairman of the conference, declared it permanently adjourned at 12:43 o'clock today. The President's decision not to keep the conference in session was expressed to the employer's group and the public by President Lane, who said that it was the President's wish that the public group remain in session and prepare a statement for him in regard to the industrial situation in the U. S. The employer's group, who had offered to remain in the conference as long as the president desired, were told by the chairman that the president appreciated their courtesy but that with labor absent, the nature of the conference had changed.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The labor group does not intend to return to President Wilson's industrial conference.

This statement was made by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.
"We are not jumping-jacks," said Gompers. "We don't walk out of a conference and walk right back. We are always willing to meet with men who are willing to meet with us on a common ground. We made all the concessions possible. We could not have made more and faced the millions of workers we represented."

BARUCH PESSIMISTIC
(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Though the employers and the public group in the industrial conference were scheduled to meet today, there was little hope that the labor group would join the conference. The assertion of Chairman Lane that the conference was still in existence was being disputed even by Bernard Baruch, who is the personal representative of the White House.

"There's no conference left," Baruch said today. "It's like going into court to present only one side of a case."
Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison are still in Washington, but several members of the labor group left the capital last night.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK PASSENGER TRAIN FAILS; TRAIN LATE

(International News Service.)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—What is believed to have been an attempt to blow up a passenger train filled with workmen going to the steel mills at Monessen was made today, when a bomb exploded between two tank cars loaded with gasoline on a side track near Bellevue station, at the time the train was scheduled to leave. The train was several minutes late and the explosion did no damage. State policemen believe that those responsible for the blast thought the tank cars would also blow up. There is no clue to the perpetrator.

MR. HINES BREAKS THE EXPRESSMAN'S STRIKE

The public, which is becoming wearied with the ever growing number of strikes, most of which are apparently only slightly justified, will note with pleasing interest that Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, has forced the expressmen at New York, who went out in sympathy with the longshoremen, to return to their places under penalty of being bodily fired from the service, pending the adjustment of their claims for higher wages by the federal wage commission. This is the first time that such drastic methods of breaking a strike have been resorted to, and that it was effective is very satisfactory.

The strikers, in a good many instances, have assumed too much of the "public be damned" attitude that was once popular with the capitalists. They have entirely forgotten any duty that they might owe to the public, in their eagerness to join the ranks of those who would seize by force that which they desire. Apparently the human capacity for suffering has been used as a weapon with which to gain demands that are not always fair. Because mankind can't get along without food and clothing and fuel, workers in many industries have sought to exact wage increases to which they are not entitled. The strike of coal miners, set for the beginning of the winter season, aptly illustrates the inhumanity of those who are responsible for the orders that will cause great bodies of men to lay down their tools.

Both capital and labor must take the public into consideration, if the nation is to escape conditions more intolerable than those of war. For this reason, the innocent bystander—and his number is millions—will most readily endorse any measures taken to terminate the present industrial turmoil. Common sense must be restored to its throne, and a spirit of conciliation must replace the spirit of destruction before America can fully enjoy its present era of unparalleled prosperity.

PRESIDENT PROVES HIS MIND IS WORKING

Unwarranted rumors that attained nationwide circulation to the effect that President Wilson's mind had been affected by his illness, rumors that were no doubt inspired both by his enemies and by stock market gamblers, were rather sharply refuted in an indirect way by the executive himself when he penned the letter that was read to the industrial conference yesterday. The phrasing of that communication, the high appeal to the warring factions to remain in session until America's industrial problem was solved, could have emanated from no other mind than that of Woodrow Wilson. The message showed plainly that the world's leading statesman, though ill in body, is unconquered in spirit and still in full possession of his remarkable mental faculties. Those who have slandered Mr. Wilson should blush with shame.

Mrs. Pankhurst, the English suffragist agitator, is reported to have threatened to lecture throughout the union. Her two main accomplishments, it will be recalled, were that she refused to open her mouth for food while in jail and refused to close it on any account when she got out of jail.

Nevada is thinking seriously of making a three years residence necessary to a divorce in the state that Reno made famous. Listen out for a loud howl from the hotel keepers of Reno against this new encroachment against "personal liberty."

The only time in history according to Mr. Shakespeare, when the cost of meat was as high as now, was when Shylock considered a pound of flesh of a certain Merchant of Venice worth many gold ducats.

"The melancholy days have come," said a certain year—especially in view of the many strikes and rumors thereof.

It is quite as well that President Wilson has little in common with the Senate.

Old Man Procrastination grew old and that was about all he did do.

The sugar magnates believe that higher prices are also sweet.

New York now calls it German "uproar."

The official confirmation of the fall of Petrograd is officially denied.

The Southern Newspaper Publishers' association, in session at Nashville, found the paper shortage a fine topic for discussion. The association, however, failed to suggest any very practical way to meet the situation.

Secretary Daniels has announced that the navy department will sell 3,000,000 pounds of sugar. It's up to the individual to get his half-ounce of this allotment.

It is beginning to appear that both miners and operators are intent upon avoiding the averting of the strike called for November 1.

Longshoremen who attempted to lynch T. V. O'Connor, their president, would make splendid recruits for Trotsky's "red" army. They have the fighting spirit and the proper disrespect for constituted authority.

Dr. Serge Vonostoff declares he can postpone old age by grafting interstitial glands. Another graft game.

The big idea in a trans-continental air derby is to have sufficient entrants for one to survive and cop the honors.

JUST IN PASSING

FAVORS BIG TOWN
An for the big town idea," said Frank W. Frohoff, star pitcher of the Albany-Decatur ball team, "if for no other reason on account of the good that will come to base ball. All of our ball teams of the past have either been a rank failure in a financial way or near it. I do not see how we can hope to get anything done that requires union unless we unite. I am for a big town all under one government. We cannot hope to have a good base ball town or any other kind of a successful town unless we consolidate. Though, I am out farming it now, I hope when I come to town some of these fine days that I will find all prejudice and narrowness gone, and in their place a one big town that we can depend on to do things."

THOUGH Old Houses

Waking I walk the highways of today, And toward tomorrow's threshold step I turn. Unfaltering feet, but in my dreams I yearn. Along a narrow, half-forgotten way That leads me through a middle-distance grey. Back to old houses. Plainly I discern Rooms, halls and stairways of the past, I learn Old lessons, read old books, old games I play. Old houses! Actual, though long since razed To nothing, Olden faces long since dust. Yet living more than those on which I gazed. But yesterday. Cast-off beliefs and trust. And yet when sleep has come, so real they seem, That when I wake, the waking seems the dream! Anne Higginson Spicer in The Transcript.

Mrs. George A. Rogers will entertain the Canal street rook club this afternoon.

MESDAMES SAUNDERS AND BILLINGS ENTERTAIN FOR MISS ALMON

Mesdames C. L. Saunders and Roy Billings entertained the Tuesday Bridge club yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Kathleen Almon, a bride-elect of Nov. 5. The mysteriousness of Hallowe'en was used as a motif, its witches, black cats and yellow pumpkins brought to mind the charms of Hallowe'en night so big with prophecy to the young. A further development of the wedding colors was carried in vases of pink, yellow and white chrysanthemums. The tables for the game were arranged in darkened rooms. Those playing were: Mesdames F. S. Hunt, Julian Bibb, H. D. Greer, Chas. Kortrecht, John Knight, A. A. Hardage, M. L. Hardage, E. N. Penick, John W. Jones, Alex Humphrey, H. R. Davis, Marvin Rankin, A. B. Codrington, Meade Vaughn, T. H. Alexander, Joseph Petty, Frank Lide, John W. Shears, B. B. Pickens, T. M. Jones, Jr., Misses Ethel McEntire, Mary Penick, Leta Bess Harrison, Janie Morrow, Kathleen Almon, Rhea Lide, Marjorie Miller. The guest prize was awarded to Mrs. A. A. Hardage, the club prize to Mrs. Alex Humphrey. The hostesses presented the honoree a handsome vase. Just at the close of the game the honoree was summoned to the door where two little witches—Louise Almon and Louise Neill, who met her bearing on their brooms a gift of yellow and black, which they presented to her. On opening she found she had been showered with kitchen utensils, gifts from loving friends.

At the conclusion of the game a tempting salad course was served. The players were joined for refreshments by Mesdames J. W. Cobb, McCleary, D. C. Almon, R. T. Sheppard, and Misses Trix Scheer and Annie Fay Almon. Mrs. Saunders received her guests wearing a French serge shaded in henna, Mrs. Roy Billings attired in a blue chrysanthemum, with just a touch of rose color. Miss Almon wore a pretty afternoon frock of green crepe de chene, braided in black and a chic black hat. Unique score cards of black cats and witches were used and favors on each plate were witches and black cats filled with home made candies, carrying the Hallowe'en idea in each detail.

COTACCO LITERARY CLUB

Mrs. Floyd Taylor was hostess to the first meeting of the year of the Cotacco Literary club of Albany-Decatur. For the occasion the house had been decorated lavishly with large rich pink chrysanthemums. Mrs. Moebe, the chairman, opened the Day was leader, assisted by Mesdames Buchheit, Wolf and Mullen who made the lesson very interesting. At the request of the hostesses the club remained for a social hour when she served a frozen salad.

Father and Son, Relatives Local Woman, Are Dead

Mrs. George Hartung, of Albany, has received news of the death of her brother-in-law, Morris Sprecher, in Milwaukee, Wis., and the death a few days later of the latter's son, Floyd Sprecher, who was killed when a truck he was driving was struck by a train.

The elder Sprecher was a nephew-in-law of George and John Hartung, well known Albany residents. Floyd Sprecher's death was blamed by the coroner on the watchman at the crossing of Fifteenth street and St. Paul avenue, who, it is alleged, failed to lower the gate when the locomotive approached.

The Milwaukee Journal says: "The death of young Sprecher brought grief to the home of his father, who only three days ago the father was buried. When their little son, Arthur, told his mother that Floyd was dead, she collapsed. Fearing the news of his death might impair the physical condition of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Graunke, who suffered a nervous breakdown, following the death of her father, Mrs. Sprecher begged reporters not to tell her."

"Leave It to Jane" Was Pleasing Show

Local theatregoers will be quite willing to "leave it to Jane" in future, for if Jane had anything to do with the production of that name which appeared at the Masonic last night she is worthy of confidence.

Not for a long time have local patrons of the Masonic enjoyed such a pleasing and finished performance. The company as a whole was exceptionally clever, the cast well balanced, the chorus large, well trained, and the feminine portion of it comely. The costuming was all that could be desired, while the musical numbers were catchy.

The plot was much more pronounced than that of the average musical comedy and hinged around the ability of "Jane" to hold the affections of Bolton, football star, long enough for him to help Atwater, of which her father was president, defeat Bingham, a rival institution owned largely by Bolton's father. The duped athlete had his reward at the finish, in the person of Jane herself.

Mabel Jones, cast in the title role, shared feminine honors with Jane Loren, as Bessie Tanner, an athletic girl, and Mildred Miller, a waitress. In the masculine parts, Robert Jewett, as "Stub" Talmadge; Charles Horn, as President Witherspoon; Chas. Mitchell, as "Silent" Murphy; Edwin Martyn, as Howard Talbot, a tutor; Fred Palmer, as Hiram Bolton; Anthony Hughes as Billy Bolton; Alen Kelly, as Hon. Elam Hicks, and Charles Foster, as "Bub" Hicks, were equally good.

The cast was not distinguished by any singing voices of unusual merit, and the invasion of unexpected territory caused the orchestra to be missed.

The production, however, was superior to criticism, and the large audience, which taxed the capacity of the theatre, was enthusiastic and appreciative.

Uncover Scheme to Defraud Uncle Sam of Many Millions

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The congressional sub-committee which for the past week has been investigating the $27,000,000 munition contract of the Standard Steel Car Company, of Hammond, Ind., left for Washington today to present evidence to the house of representatives on which it is predicted the government will base suits to recover between $13,000,000 and $15,000,000 from the company involved, and start criminal prosecution of a dozen or more army officers involved in the deal.

Mill Girls Win Honors Forming Thrift Clubs

When they start passing out decorations and citations for distinguished service in peace, watch for some of the honors being bestowed upon these two detachments of Uncle Sam's Thrift army. They're the champion Thrift Club organizers of the Southeastern cotton mills.

While the war was on they learned to save and put their money in Thrift and Savings Stamps. Afterwards they found out that thrift was a pretty good thing to help beat the high cost of living and make it possible to save for the things they just couldn't buy if they had to pay all at once out of a week's wages. And, they couldn't see any reason why others shouldn't save, too.

The girls are operatives in the big Hillside cotton mill at LaGrange, Ga. The men run overseers and second hands in the same mill. So, to get everybody in the mill in the habit of saving, they formed two teams of girls, with the men as leaders. Then the fun started. Rivalry in getting members in the Thrift Clubs was keen. In three weeks they had every employee in the mill—600 of 'em—enrolled and buying Thrift and Savings Stamps regularly. The weekly sales of stamps in the mill is more than $1,000 and growing every day.

General Rise in River Predicted

A general rise in the Tennessee river for several days was predicted today by the government observers at Chattanooga. The following readings were made:

Chief Sorber, of the Albany fire department, is hanging up a new record for October. It was a call to the Bodrey residence, 414 Fifth avenue West.

THIEF SWIPES 16 TURKEYS; LOSES WALLET WITH $60

(International News Service.) LODI, Cal., Oct. 23.—Someone entered H. L. Gray's poultry yard here and made away with sixteen turkeys—nice fat ones—in the dead of night. Gray, however, didn't pursue the robber for, as the latter climbed the fence with his haul in a huge bag he dropped a wallet containing $60 in currency.

Today Gray has the $60 and is preparing to restock on turkeys.

JOHN DRINKWATER TO STAGE "OLIVER CROMWELL"

(International News Service.) LONDON, Oct. 23.—John Drinkwater, who has done more than anybody to "put Abraham Lincoln over" to the British public, in his play by that name, is going to reveal to the British one of their own historic figures, "Oliver Cromwell."

Dramatic critics raved over "Abraham Lincoln." It was presented in a suburban theatre which became the object of pilgrimages. The playwright's portrayal of Cromwell will go on at one of the leading theatres.

Interstitial Gland Again.
Excuse for Robbery.
Study Boswell.

(By Arthur Brisbane.)

Dr. Voronoff says positively that he will give "revived youth to mankind." Vital energy depends, it seems, on the interstitial gland. When that wears out with old age vitality goes, and man sinks into the grave.

A new interstitial gland planted in the system will start producing vitality and man will go on as energetic as ever—so says Dr. Voronoff, and he believes it.

The difficulty at first was to find a young human interstitial gland to plant in an old man. Each young man, of course, values his interstitial gland, even if he doesn't know exactly what it is, and would not part with it, as parting would mean death.

In China you can hire plenty of young men to die, for a fixed sum. They would sell you the interstitial gland and the entire body. They piously use the money thus earned to care for aged parents. Men condemned to death in China have been able to buy substitutes.

At present, Dr. Voronoff, in experiments actually made on human beings, is using the interstitial glands of monkeys.

The monkey's blood is like that of a man, and the monkey's skeleton is the number of bones and their character exactly reproduces that of man. The interstitial gland taken from a young monkey and planted in an old man grows and makes the old man seem young.

It is just possible that one of these days there may be an interstitial gland exchange established in China and a regular price quoted for young men willing to be made old for a fixed sum.

It is more likely, however, that a sufficient number of experiments will show that in certain things Providence is not to be defeated in its plans.

There have been many schemes for determining the sex of children before birth, but Nature attends to the matter, boys and girls come along year after year, a few more girls than boys, except in war, when boys are more numerous.

Providence has had people young then old, and Providence will probably continue to do that, in spite of Dr. Voronoff and the monkey's interstitial gland.

Nature has no desire, and would be foolish indeed, to keep permanently young and active the extremely poor samples of human beings, manufactured thus far.

The house where Boswell was born is to be sold. Let this remind you to get Boswell's "Life of Johnson" at the library, or if too busy for many volumes of intensely interesting study of an interesting human being, get John Morley's "Life of Johnson" in the English Men of Letters series, and read the numerous extracts from Boswell selected by Morley. Boswell worked a miracle, in that he took the real genius of Samuel Johnson, which was conversation, and preserved it for all time. Without that conversation Johnson would have been forgotten, a few would have read "Rasselas," written in a hurry to save his mother's funeral; a few others might have looked over the Johnson dictionary, as a curiosity—that would have been all.

Of the average great writer we know less of himself and more of his writings as time passes. In Samuel Johnson's case we know more of his personality, less and less of what he wrote, as he fades into the past.

Little did Johnson think what would be the result of his talks with the rimetlike Scotchman, forever at his elbow, writing down what he said.

Bishop McKim, of Tokio, an Episcopalian doing noble work in Japan, says it is all right to take Shantung from China and give it to Japan, because if China got it back she would simply barter Shantung to some other nation within two years.

Some used to say that slavery was a good thing because the poor blacks wouldn't know what to do with themselves if set free.

And once, as Henry Ward Beecher pointed out, a prayer book was concerned because a picture in the front showed Christ with poor mothers and children, and among others a negro in chains at His feet. The negro in chains was said to be "propaganda against slavery." Those who slave laws, and the negro was taken out of the prayer book. Sometimes even religion is too conservative.

The French get at things more quickly than we do in America. President Poincaré has signed a decree of general demobilization. Over there, they haven't a situation complicated by the whiskey proposition.

If we had demobilization here now, that would mean two and a half months of unlimited whiskey selling which would be a bad thing for the country. Those that control demobilization are on the prohibition side, and not in a hurry. In addition, the President's illness may make it impossible for him to reach a definite decision before January and the fatal lay making the United States dry for thirty years at least.

GERMAN RUIN IS SEEN IN COAL LACK

By International News Service Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—All in Germany including the striking miners, are pretty well convinced that unless some relief in the coal situation is forthcoming the nation will be thrown into economic ruin. And relief does not seem to be forthcoming. Strikes inspired by communist propagandists, continue.

The railroads and the Berlin gas works are on the point of closing down. The Prussian railroads at this moment have only enough coal to operate for a few more days. The Berlin gas works reports a scanty supply on hand. Other cities are in the same predicament. Physicians predict thousands of deaths from pneumonia, due to lack of coal, during the winter.

Berlin street cars and subways may cease running. Several large industrial plants already have closed down or are working half time. The entire coal supply of one plant was seized yesterday and turned over to the gas works to give Berlin housewives another day of grace. The lid will be probably clamped tight on all cafes and theatres.

There is no bunker coal for fishing steamers. That means no sea food and soon there will be no trains to transport what little there is. There is no coal for the sugar industry. The beets must be used as cattle feed or rot in the fields, and, incidentally, the German people must get along without sugar. There is no coal for the cement industry, and under the peace terms Germany is obliged to make heavy deliveries of cement to the Entente. There is little prospect, therefore, of Germany delivering 20,000,000 tons of coal annually to the Entente, which is less than one-half of the original demand specified in the Versailles treaty, leaders declare.

RHEUMATISM

Prevented Him Using Arms to Feed Himself. Recommends 40.

Augusta, Ga., May, 20, 1919. "I suffered with rheumatism and indigestion and at times could not use my arms to feed myself. I tried every remedy I heard of with only temporary relief. I was advised to try Number 40 For The Blood which I did with splendid results. While I am not entirely well I feel like a different man and expect to continue Number 40, believing it will cure me. I have told several of my friends of 19, which they are taking with great results. I cheerfully recommend No. 40 to any one suffering from any blood or stomach trouble." Wesley Royal. Witness to signature, J. M. Haynie. Made by J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, 40 years a druggist. Sold by Presitt-Dillehay Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Scientists Puzzled at Girl's Strange Sleep

(International News Service.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 22.—Scientists here are puzzled at the strange sleep of pretty seven-year-old Roberta Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stephenson. The child fell twenty-five feet from a sleeping porch and has been unconscious more than fifteen days. No bones were broken in the fall. Physicians admit the case a peculiar one.

A very slight improvement is shown daily, but she does not regain consciousness.

DISCARDED AS DANGEROUS

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like

SLAVS WAITING TO SEIZE FIUME

TROOPS MASHED DASH IN WHEN ITALIANS AND D'ANNUNZIO TROOPS CLASH.

By HOWARD C. STRUTT,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

ROME, Oct. 23.—Even the most sanguine of optimists can not deny that the situation in Italy is becoming more serious every day. Gabriele D'Annunzio's headstrong initiative at Fiume has placed Italy in "impasse," a veritable deadlock, the ultimate issue of which is more than doubtful and may lead to even more serious international complications.

D'Annunzio proclaims his sovereignty over Fiume and has sent messages to the cities of Dalmatia, Spalato, Trau, Ragusa and Sebenico, all people by subjects of purely Venetian blood, announcing his intention to rescue them from the threatened Jugo-Slav "invasion."

He has at his disposal a force of 10,000 regulars, which is daily increasing, owing to the influx of volunteers, most of whom are officers of noteworthy reputations. In addition, this force is supplemented by a fleet composed of first-class ships, headed by the Dante Alighieri, Italy's most powerful dreadnaught.

Some Italians believe there is something significant in the fact that the biggest battleship to go over to the captors of Fiume should bear the name of the poet who prophetically mapped out the boundaries of Italy, making them extend from the Alps to the Gulf of Inarnaro.

This adventure, the adventure of a soldier-poet who takes into his hands the destinies of a whole country smarting under the sting of what it believes to be the "inexplicable obstinacy of Wilson," possesses the elements of historical romance. In fact, it would be hard to find something approaching it in the whole literature of Dumas or Sir Walter Scott. But the war seems to have accustomed the world to strange surprises.

It appears that D'Annunzio intends to hold Fiume until the end of time despite rumors that he is considering surrendering the city because the populace is becoming alarmed over the food shortage. At any rate, the poet has announced that he will remain in the city until the Nitti Ministry falls. But Nitti appears to be equally determined to hold on to the Premiership, and as the chances are that he will succeed at this time, he is hurrying up the elections, which are due to take place early in November.

The one thing that prevents Italy attempting to force D'Annunzio out is the fear of bloodshed. The Jugo-Slavs have massed troops around Fiume, and they desire nothing better than to see a bloody battle between loyal Italian battalions and D'Annunzio's soldiers. It would afford them the opportunity for which they have been patiently awaiting, a chance to rush into the city while the two Italian elements were too busy slaughtering one another to offer any serious resistance to a third force.

AMUSEMENTS

BERT LYTELL APPEARS AT THE DELITE TODAY

"One-Thing-at-a-Time O'Day" which comes to the Delite theatre today, is a brilliant comedy-drama, which gives Bert Lytell a role of remarkable versatility. It is a romance of the saw-just-ring, an appealing play of circus-folk that deals with the intimate details of their lives which never penetrates into the big ring.

The story is that of O'Day, a young man who falls in love at first sight with Marie, the beautiful bare-bell rider of the show. He is a remarkable young fellow who, though looked upon by his friends as being slow and peculiar, possesses the key to success—he believes in doing one-thing-at-a-time. With this in view he determines to accomplish three things—to marry Marie, to become part-owner of the show and to lick the "strong" man! How he does all three and the extraordinary methods he uses to achieve his purposes makes the play one of unusual originality and shows the clever star in his best vein. It is a play with strong heart-appeal as well as unlimited humor.

NATURE CURE IN WOMEN SURPLUS

By FLOYD MacGRIFF,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—While much printer's ink is being spilled over the fact that England now has a great "surplus" of women, the problem is a real one for the present generation, but in the eyes of the scientist or statistician it presents nothing worthy of worry.

The scientist is confident that nature will correct the error in its own mysterious ways.

There are 1,888,000 more females than males in the country.

"The present increased surplus," says Mr. de Jastrzobski, Acting Secretary of the General Register Office, Somerset House, "is due almost entirely to the war. Normally the population of any country depends upon three causes—two physiological and one economic. There is the ratio of the sexes at birth, the ratio of the sexes at death, and the economical cause is migration.

"In this country at the present time 105 boys are born to every 100 girls, but we have 112 to 114 males dying to every 100 females. These facts point to a majority of females in the population. But actually this is not so.

"In round figures, let us say, there were in England and Wales 800,000 birth and 500,000 deaths. If you work it out on that proportion you find the sexes nearly balance, and if the question were left to physiological causes alone the population would almost balance.

"But in the number of men who emigrate is much larger than women.

"Thirty years before the war the increase in the predominance of women in the population of this country was due greatly to emigration.

"There is little reason to fear a big increase in the female surplus.

WOMAN SUFFERED FOR TEN YEARS WITH INDIGESTION

Doctors Gave Her Up—Now She Feels Fit and Enjoys Life—Speaks Most Highly of Sulfero-Sol.

"I suffered for ten years with chronic indigestion and Eczema," says Mrs. W. A. Green, of Ellettsburg, Alabama. "Now, thanks to Sulfero-Sol, I am able to do my work, feel fit and have gained ten pounds. From the very start it seemed to have a wonderful effect. Previous to this I had been treated at different times, by five doctors, and none of them gave me much hope. They said that I might linger for a time. Most of them gave me to understand that I was incurable. I have been twice taken to hospitals. I could not eat anything but raw eggs and milk. But after taking Sulfero-Sol for two weeks I could eat almost everything and my Eczema began to disappear. It had been an effort to walk two blocks without a rest, but I began to get my strength back, felt better in every way and was able to go to work.

"After ten years of suffering I was free at last. It has been nearly three years since I had any symptoms of either disease, and I only took it for a few months."

Sulfero-Sol has wonderful remedial powers and the experience of Mrs. Green is the experience of countless others who have suffered from stomach troubles, blood, skin and nerve diseases. Get a bottle at your druggist's. Refuse all substitutes for this wonder medicine.
